

Sheikh Dr. Muhammad Yousuf Al-Sabah
Kuwaiti Prince 9K2CS Kuwait
Minister of State for foreign affairs.
Honourable Dr. Muhammad was born in 1955 and is the son of the late Emir of Kuwait,
Sheikh Sabah III Al-Salem Al-Sabah

His elder brother is Sheikh Salem Sabah Al-Salem Al-Sabah, former Defense and Interior minister.

9K2CS holds a Ph.D. in economics from Harvard University and was a professor of Economics at Kuwait University between 1979 and 1985. Then delegating to Kuwait Institute for Scientific research from 1987 to 1988.

In 1993, His Excellency was then appointed as an Ambassador of Kuwait to the United States. He remained in this position until he was appointed State Minister for Foreign Affairs on February 14th 2001.

On February 11, 2005, Sheikh Mohammad became Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Our subject has had a extensive career in the diplomacy arena and friend of the United States and ham radio in particular. The picture caption; General M. Diamond (L) receives award from Prince Yousuf Al-Sabah.

9K2CS would be a good catch in the log. Have you worked our subject?